Preface	v
1 Lie algebra cohomology and the Duflo isomorphism	1
1.1 The original Duflo isomorphism	2
1.2 Cohomology	4
1.3 Chevalley–Eilenberg cohomology	6
1.4 The cohomological Duflo isomorphism	8
2 Hochschild cohomology and spectral sequences	11
2.1 Hochschild cohomology	11
2.2 Spectral sequences	13
2.3 Application: Chevalley–Eilenberg versus Hochschild cohomology	16
3 Dolbeault cohomology and the Kontsevich isomorphism	19
3.1 Complex manifolds	19
3.2 Atiyah and Todd classes	21
3.3 Hochschild cohomology of a complex manifold	22
3.4 The Kontsevich isomorphism	24
4 Superspaces and Hochschild cohomology	25
4.1 Supermathematics	25
4.2 Hochschild cohomology strikes back	28
5 The Duflo–Kontsevich isomorphism for Q-spaces	33
5.1 Statement of the result	33
5.2 Application: proof of the Duflo Theorem	35
5.3 Strategy of the proof	37
6 Configuration spaces and integral weights	41
6.1 The configuration spaces $C_{n,m}^+$	41
6.2 Compactification of C_n and $C_{n,m}^+$ à la Fulton–MacPherson	42
6.3 Directed graphs and integrals over configuration spaces	46
7 The map \mathcal{U}_Q and its properties	51
7.1 The quasi-isomorphism property	51
7.2 The cup product on poly-vector fields	54
7.3 The cup product on poly-differential operators	57

8	The map \mathcal{H}_Q and the homotopy argument	61
8.1	The complete homotopy argument	61
8.2	Contribution to \mathcal{W}_F^2 of boundary components in Y	63
8.3	Twisting by a supercommutative DG algebra	68
9	The explicit form of \mathcal{U}_Q	71
9.1	Graphs contributing to \mathcal{U}_Q	71
9.2	\mathcal{U}_Q as a contraction	73
9.3	The weight of an even wheel	76
10	Fedosov resolutions	79
10.1	Bundles of formal fiberwise geometric objects	79
10.2	Resolutions of algebras	81
10.3	Fedosov differential	82
10.4	Fedosov resolutions	84
10.5	Proof of Theorem 3.6	86
	Appendix Deformation-theoretical interpretation of Hochschild
	cohomology	89
A.1	Čech cohomology: a (very) brief introduction	89
A.2	The link between Čech and Dolbeault cohomology: Dolbeault's Theorem	90
A.3	Twisted presheaves of algebras	93
	Bibliography	101
	Index	105
